
Title: Book IV

Author: Isk

Rufus' speech continued:

"In time, trade regulations and perimeters will be put in place through a well thought out trade agreement pact with those willing to be involved"

"I ensure and promise that the Regency and Loyalists guilds will work closely together to secure the existence of light and virtue in the Realm of Sosaria. Smiting evils is something many seek, but one must define evil. Evil is indeed a treat, but it is darkness and those that wish to harm and falter the welfare and best interest of beings that exist within the realm. I ask that all those in favor of what is good and right ally to protect the well being of the people and constantly seek to keep light alive within Britannia. I hope to place the city of Britain under protection of the Regency, for it is an important part of the history and structure of the government that exists."

"On a personal note though, I hope to continue to propose missives of unity and peace to the people of Britannia and even the occasional missive to those within the Regency hoping to increase their interaction and aid them in knowing that their participation counts and their status degree of interaction is noted and complemented. I will continue my study of the virtues to better encourage others to keep faith in them and to better understand the principles that Lord British constantly represented through his leadership and intelligence."

"My good people, so many possibilities exist, I'd nigh say that those I run against are less honorable, for their concerns are the same as mine overall,
The People of Britannia.
Tis why I wish them the best of luck and hope that if they are chosen they will continue to keep their intentions honorable and keep good ideals in mind for the people and government. But I ensure you that the things I've stated are changes I hope to put into place to strengthen the Regency and maintain a grand government. Relationship with the people,
organization and
inter-regency strength and relationships will be what will create a new era for the Regency and maintain good in the hearts of the Citizens of Britannia."

Kotare made a speech as well to mark the start of his campaign and it
went as follows:

"Greetings my fellow citizens. As a nominee for Govenor-Regent, I would first like to congratulate both my opponents, Rufus and Lilyth, on their nominations. I will have a hard time with both these fine canidates running against me. Well, I'm not one for beating around the bush, so hear it goes.... If I am Elected, I will work hard to accomplish the following:

"1) My first priority is to reclaim Britian. It is the city in which our long departed Lord British clamed as his capitol and that is where the 1st Govenor-Regent took office. I feel it is a city of major importance for the Regency and reclaiming it would not only boost the morale of those within the Regency, it will also show that the Regency is still a major power to contend with."

"2) The next step would be to Boost morale within the ranks of the loyalist community. In the past I have shown you that I can inspire you. I have also shown you that I would stand by you in the most dire of times. Now let me show you that I can guide you to a better tomorrow."

"3) If I am elected as your new Regent, I would strive to increase the number of active soldiers within the ranks of our military. In doing so, I would only ask that each loyalist guild to send one of their warriors for a short term of service(length of service would be determined by the Grand Parlament). In doing so, the loyalist will then have the protection of the said army at their disposal. The role this military force will have is to serve and protect Regency intrest
